

“Convincing similarities to the classic, hard-hitting qualities of Blood, Sweat & Tears” —Don Heckman, L.A. Times

BRUNS & Baché

BRUNS & BACHÉ is a Los Angeles based 9-piece jazz-pop group featuring LA’s A-list jazz session players. Powerful rock-like lead vocals, tight horns, and soulful backing vocals create a vintage sound that music critics liken to “a modern-day Chicago/Blood Sweat & Tears”. Their songs are known for catchy melodies and driving energy that brings audiences to their feet throughout live shows.

Garcia and "Get Back" — were recorded at the famous EastWest Studio Two (Red Hot Chili Peppers, Whitney Houston), mixed by Grammy-winning mixer Craig Bauer (Kane West, Ed Sheeran), and mastered by Dave Collins (No Doubt, The Police).

Their past two albums were Top-10 charting (College Music Journal, Roots Music Report) airing on 300+ radio stations nationwide. Multiple songs from the “Cherry Avenue” album received weekly spins on 300+ stations nationwide, including L.A.’s KKJZ 88.1FM.

“Baché combines the tone of Bubl , the energy of Elling and the feel of Porter.” — JazzTimes

The group’s two new EPs — “Tribute con Salsa” (feat. Andy

“Bruns’ drumming and tight arrangements provide the perfect setting for Bach ’s vocals.” — Bebop Spoken Here

The band is performing to sold-out audiences at Southern California’s top venues, including Los Angeles County Museum of Art (LACMA) and the Catalina Club (Sunset Strip, Hollywood, CA). In 2019 they completed their second multi-city Japan Tour.
